

Safe at Home Again

Jean Stringam

1. Oh, some-where I've a home, Where I am safe and
2. Oh some-where I've a home, And those who care for warm, I ne - ver wan - ted a - ny - thing, I ne - ver yearned to me, But now I'm lost, so all a - lone, My hope has al - most

5

9

room, If on - ly I could hear, The voi - ces that I flown. If on - ly I could know They'd love me as I love, They'd call for me and and all the fear would fade, would dis - ap - am, I'd run to them and all a - glow with joy, my love be -

13

Safe at Home Again

17

pear, Oh please, if on - ly I could see find Them smile and com - fort stow, Oh please, if on - ly I could find My fam - ily who is me, kind, Then Then I would be safe safe at home a - gain. gain. Be - cause, My home is where I'm known, It's where I'm not a - lone, My home is where I'm loved, My home is in my 33

21

25

29

dreams, It's where I'm not a waif, My home is where I'm

Safe at Home Again

37 1. safe. 2. safe. Safe at home a-gain, safe.

41 Safe at home a-gain, safe. My home is where I'm

45 known, It's where I'm not a-lone, My home is where I'm

49 loved, My home is in my dreams, It's where I'm not a-

53 way, My home is where I'm safe. rit.